

Ice-Law meeting: 'Climate, fish and fisheries sector: Local and indigenous perspectives'. Rovaniemi, Arctic Centre

Organised by Anna Stammler-Gossmann,

AGENDA: April 16, Thule room

Session 1: 9:00 – 12.00

- Prof. Koivurova Timo, Director of the Arctic Centre. Coordinator of ICE LAW sub-project: Legal perspective
- Dr. Stammler-Gossmann Anna, Arctic Centre. Coordinator of ICE LAW sub-project: Local and indigenous perspectives: Arctic fisheries in the context of climatic changes.
- Dr. Klochkov Dmitry. Director of Marine Informatics, Murmansk, 'Climate change and the current status of commercial fish stock in the North-East Atlantic
- Kiselev Sergei. Fisheries regional manager of Hampidjan Group (Iceland), branch office in Russian Federation, Murmansk. Russian-Icelandic cooperation in fisheries
- Iljasov Artur. Vice-Director in international affairs of 'Association of Commercial Fisheries', Murmansk. Marine Stewardship Council and certified sustainable fisheries: Experiences of the 'Association of Commercial Fisheries' 2013-2018
- Golenkevich Aleksei, Coordinator of WWF program on Sustainable Fisheries (Barents Department). Cooperation between WWF and fishers: Reducing the impact of the commercial cod and haddock fisheries on the marine ecosystem of the Barents Sea
- Documentary screening: 'Domesticated fish' – Aquaculture in Finnmark (Norway), 9 min, by Anna Stammler-Gossmann

Session 2: 13.00 – 16.00

- Nebasifu Ayonghe Akonwi, Arctic Centre, PhD candidate. Discourses of Artisanal Fishing in Cameroon
- Keltoum Boumedjane, University of Versailles/Arctic Centre. "Shifting circulation of people, animals and chemical components in the context of Climate Change"
- Dr. Stammler-Gossmann Anna, Arctic Centre. Arctic fisheries: fish and fishers movement
- Tissari-Miller Alan, former trawler worker and participants of polar expeditions in the Arctic and Antarctic, Murmansk/Rovaniemi. Fishing in North Atlantic, life on board and technical equipment of trawlers.
- Iljasov Artur. Vice-Director in international affairs of 'Association of Commercial Fisheries', Murmansk. Vulnerability of the ecological system of the North-East Atlantic: Innovations in the fish industry and movement for the responsible production of the seafood.

- Koventsay Sergey, Head of the fish-processing department of OOO “Russian Sea – Aquaculture”, Murmansk. Farmed fish in the Murmansk region

April 17, Thule room

Session 3: 9:00 – 12:00

- Saloniemi Anne. Lapin AMK, Rovaniemi/Inari. Fishing Sami woman
- Janne Holopainen. Kalapalvelu 66’33 N company. Rovaniemi. Sea fishing in Norway and in Finnish Lapland in the tourism sector.
- Lazarev Maxim, Hobby fisher, Murmansk. Hobby fishing and socio-cultural significance of fish consumption in the Murmansk region
- Platonov Andrei, fisheries technologist, kolkhoz Kalinina, Murmansk region. Commercial fisheries: catch and processing in kolkhoz Kalinin

Session 4: 13:00 – 15:00

- Aikio Jouni. Sami Parliament, Livelihood and Legal Committee, Inari. Indigenous perspective: Sami fishing in the Inari lake TBC
- Pajula Eero. Hobby fisher, member of the leading group ‘Lapland experience technology 2025’, Rovaniemi. Ice fishing in Rovaniemi: Regulations and safety
- Stammler-Gossmann Anna. Fieldwork video records: ‘Fishing bears’ and ‘Salmon of Kamchatka (Far East): coming home’
- Workshop: Knowledge to Knowledge: Different techniques of knife sharpening and fish skinning, conducted by Eero Pajula and Ayonghe Akonwi Nebasifu
- Stammler-Gossmann Anna. Concluding remark.